YOUNG HIGH ALMA MATER

Dear old Young High how I love thee
Alma Mater, hail
Orange and Black wave high above thee
Through the calm and gale

All Hail to Thee

Long thy sons have sung thy praises
And thy name adore
While thy heart its jubal raises
Young High for evermore

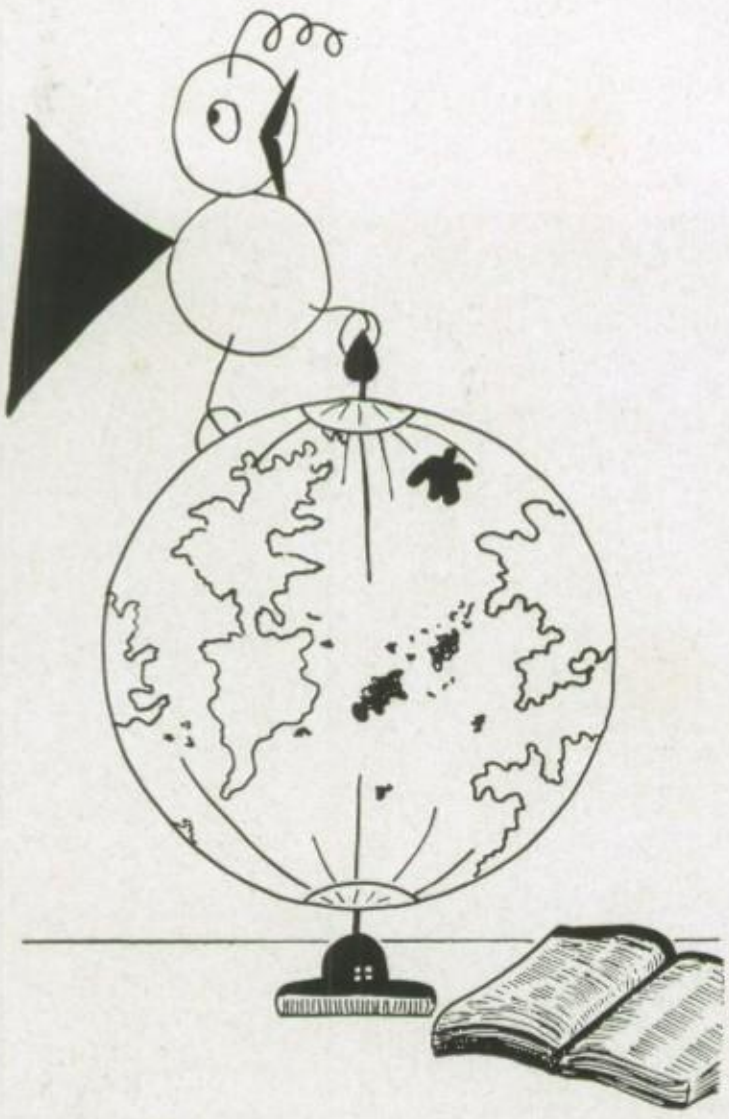
Our Alma Mater



Foreword

We have endeavored to show you a glimpse of the life at Young High through the eyes of the Watchbird. The little fellow hasn't missed a thing. He's heard all, seen all, and now tells all. This is the record of the students and their activities as he observed them.

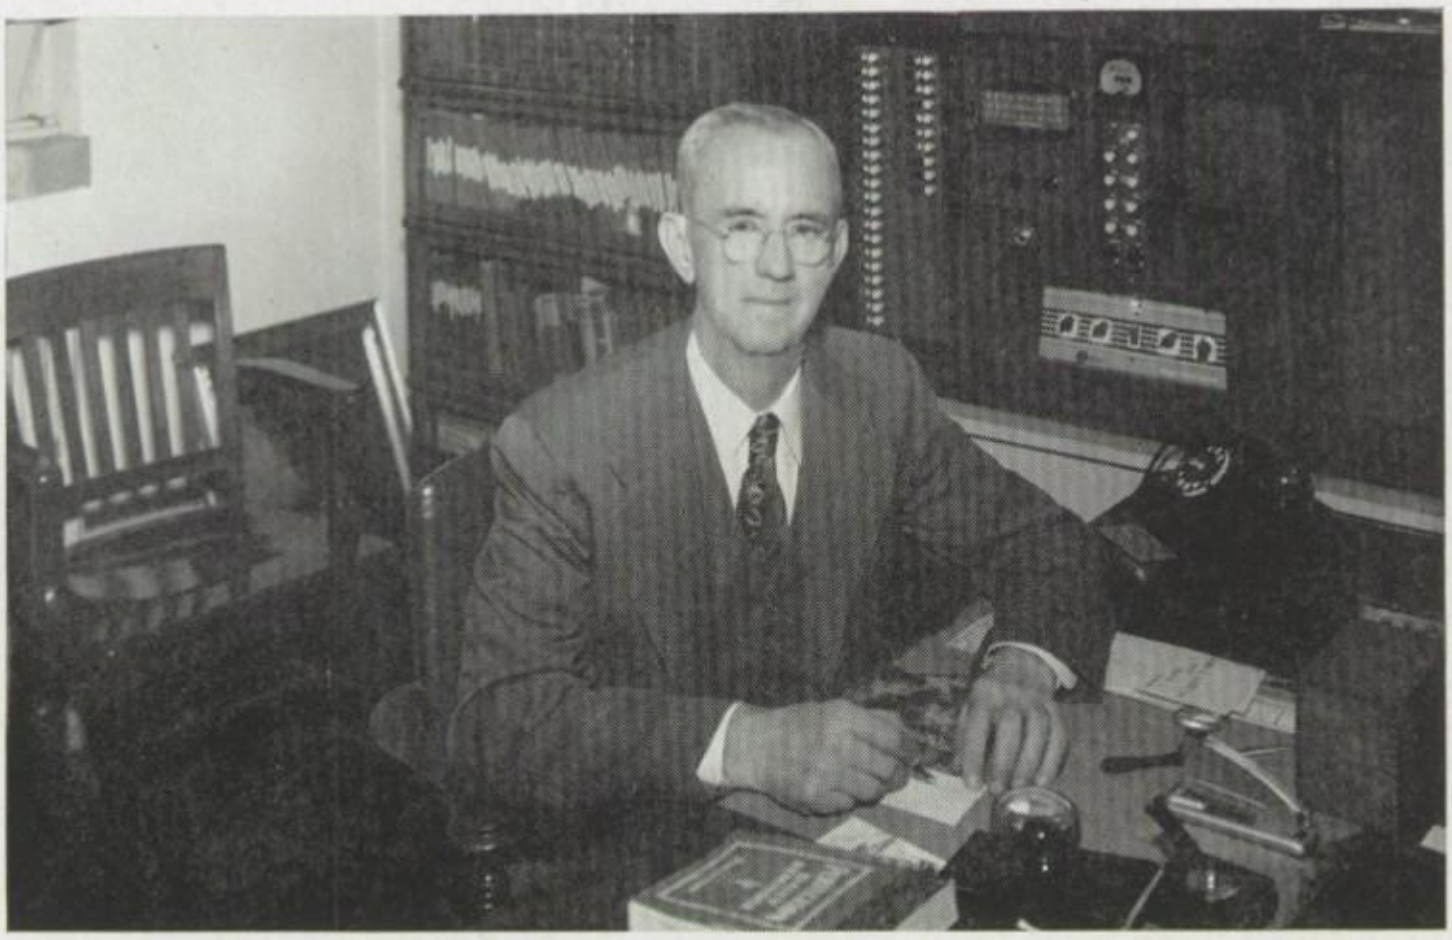
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT...

Our thanks go to Munroe Leaf for his generosity in permitting us to use his creation, The Watchbird.

Mr. Duff



. . . The Chance of Youth

It is the fully educated young people who have the capacity and the spirit for that leadership for which the world is waiting. They have not only knowledge and skill and trained mind; they have more. They have the will to serve, and God's law is the law of service. They have sympathy with need, and it is the world's need which appeals for their service and offers them opportunity. They have faith in development from within. Because of their vision, their capacity, their courage, they have it in their power to build a new world on the ruins wrought incidentally by war. H. G. Wells, in closing his book, "The Outline of History", affirms that human history becomes more and more a race between education and catastrophe, and he further declares that "education is the preparation of the individual for the community."

If the true end of education is indeed one with the true aim of life, then that end is not attained until a man comes to give the best that is in him to loving service of his fellows. Thus only can one live a truly successful life.

DEDICATION

Because he has served the school unselfishly for so many years;

Because he has tempered justice with kindness, efficiency with patience, all things with humor;

Because he has been so tolerant of our shortcomings and so interested in our success, We sincerely dedicate this 1947 Record to Mr. S. A. Duff.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

DON'T TELL ME

Don't tell me what you'll do, when you have time to spare;
Tell me what you did today to ease
a load of care
Don't tell me what you will give when your ship comes in from sea;

Tell me what you gave today a
fettered soul to free.
Don't tell me the dream you have
of conquest still afar;
Don't say what you hope to be, but tell me what you are.

Class Song

Dear Young High we cherish
Thy name so dear
For us, never perish
In forthcoming years.
Tho us you have driven
To burn midnight oil
Thy treasures you've given
Through storm and turmoil.

And now comes our parting
Our joyous days o'er
A new life we're starting
From now evermore.
We pay you our tribute
Our praises accept
And ever look upward,
May God guide our step.

Our friends and our comrades
We leave far behind.
Let beauty and friendship
Our hearts always bind.
Fond Memories will linger
And years roll on by
Old Young High, we'll miss you
At parting we sigh.

—Barbara Lou Berry

Tune—"Flow Gently Sweet Afton"

Class Poem

At last commencement time is here.
That long-awaited day,
Towards which we've worked for four long years,
Has come, and we must lay
The old aside, take up the new,
Reach greater heights, but leave you too,
Say fond farewell, and bid adieu
To high school days, so free and gay.

From freshman maze to senior daze
The minutes have flown by,
Through sophomore craze and junior laze
We've passed without a sigh.
And now we leave, to our regret;
We loved you then, we love you yet.
We owe you a tremendous debt.
We'll miss you lots, Young High.

When we knew not which way to turn,
You showed us what to do.
And when we feared we'd never learn,
You gave us hope anew.
For pushing, pulling, helping us so,
For urging us to upward go,
For teaching us whate'er we know,
Our thanks, Young High, to you.

—Bettina Bell

History of the

Before us men have flourished just as we Now flourish; others yet again shall be
Whose generations we shall never see.
—Greek Epigram.

In September, 1943, we entered Young High School as the new freshman class. There were 102 girls and 108 boys. Part of our class came from the surrounding elementary county schools. Also many of us entered from the city school system. South Knoxville Junior High School has always sent a large number of pupils to our school.

Late in the spring of 1944 under the guidance of our Principal, Mr. S. A. Duff, and Mr. Floyd Bean, the new Freshmen were called together to organize the class. Mr. J. T. Johnson, the new science teacher, was elected our sponsor. Boyd Hines was elected president, Tommy Moore, vice-president, Lynn Rose Stansberry, secretary, and Mamia Lee Little, treasurer.

Our class feels proud of the contributions we were able to make to the life of the school. We feel that we have been worthy in all of the school activities. We have made an attempt from the very beginning to show the value of making good grades and having good scholastic records.

The freshman class was well represented in the social and extra-cirricular activities of the school. Sixteen of our girls became members of the Girl Reserves, and the Penquin Club drew five for new members. Six became members of the newly organized Tip-Top Club, and five of the Footlight Club. Two boys, Boyd Hines and Jim Johnson, were elected to the Klutz Family. This was a hiking club which elected members on their high scholarship and promise of leadership.

Our school paper, "The Yellowjacket," owed much of its success this year to the hard work of such students as Betty Ann Gillespie, Betty Jean Straine, Betty Evans, and Mary Ann Turner.

Several members of the class started showing dramatic possibilities by being in the "Yankee Doodle Minstrel." Betty Ann Gillespie represented the class in the all student play "One Mad Night."

The football team was boosted considerably by the addition of Gene Burgin, Boyd Hines, Henry Letcho, Ed Maples, and Bill Foley. Bill Foley also represented our number on the basketball squad.

We have striven to excel in school spirit. During the strenuous drives to sell War Bonds we bought a bond. We presented it to the school at a special patriotic chapel under the direction of the Senior English teacher, Miss Hayes. The presentation was made by our president, Boyd Hines. The bond, at maturity, was to be used to buy gift books for our library. This spirit was highly commended by the faculty and the entire student body.

Desiring to show that we were a well rounded group, we asked the privilege of giving a chapel program. This program carried out the St. Patrick theme. Irish music, discussions of Irish life, and a lively Irish jig were on the program. The Irish dances were coached by Miss Louise Miller, the girl's physical education instructor.

In March the Freshman Class party was held in the band room. As part of the party we had a hilarious pantomime skit, games, and jitterbug contests. Our red haired June Haynes was definitely the life of the party. This party was certainly a success due to the hard work of our chaperones—Mr. Johnson, Miss Ruth Johnson (Mrs. Adams)—and the social committee, headed by Betty Ann Gillespie.

Benny Johnson and Ada Bowman won the coveted title of Mr. and Miss Freshman Class. Their pictures were placed in the feature section of the Annual.

This year was not soon to be forgotten; however we looked forward to our next step in school—the Sophomore year.

Early in the year the class was re-organized. William Foley was chosen as our president and Boyd Hines as vice-president. Lynn Rose Stansberry and Mamia Lee Little were re-elected secretary and treasurer. Mr. Johnson was again chosen as our sponsor.

Our class was proud, this year, of contributing thirteen boys to the football team. Gene Burgin made the "All-City" team. Bill Foley and Johnny Clapp were outstanding members of the basketball squad.

Twenty-three Sophomore girls joined the Girl Reserves, four joined the Penquins, and the "Yellowjacket" staff was well re-enforced with Sophomores. "Brother Goose" was the hiliarious all-student play, and four of our classmates showed their dramatic ability in that production. Several Sophomores also took part in the gala "Showboat Minstrel," and four who were dramatically minded were taken into the Thespian Troupe shortly after these productions. The Sophomores were also well represented in the newly organized club, the "Jivettes."

The Sophomore Class entertained the faculty at a Christmas tea in the Home Economics Cottage. Bobbie Seymour acted as hostess and presided at the punch bowl. The living room was decorated in Christmas colors and a beautiful tree was in order. A musical program was arranged by Betty Evans. This function was appreciated by the faculty. Much credit for its success goes to help given by both Miss Slutz and Miss Wells, the Home Economics teachers.

The class had a skating party at Chilhowee Park during the second term. In May we had one of our most enjoyable affairs. Something new for this area was started—boat trips on Fort Loudon Lake. We chartered the Lake Queen and planned the Moonlight Excursion. About 130 people made the trip and another fad was started. The money made on the trip was saved to help pay the expenses of the Junior-Senior banquet the next year.

Mamia Lee Little and Lloyd Householder were Mr. and Miss Sophomore and represented the class in the class favorite contest for the Annual.

Class of 1947

As Juniors we re-elected Mr. Johnson as our sponsor. Mrs. Phyllis Bland was elected co-sponsor. Tommy Moore was chosen president, Johnny Clapp vice president, Betty Jean Straine secretary, and Barbara Lou Berry treasurer.

A large number of Junior boys were on the football team, which probably accounted for the successful season. Encouraging the boys with their yells were Maxine Pollard and Lynn Rose Stansberry, the two Junior cheerleaders. Evelyn Hollister was a majorette, and her performances during the halves of the ball games spurred the team on. Johnny Clapp saw much action on the basketball court this year.

Five of our classmates wrote for the "Yellowjacket," and Betty Ann Gillespie was named Editor-in-Chief of the paper. The Library Staff boasted of six Junior girls, and the Thespian Club had eight Junior members. Barbara Lou Berry was invited to join the Klutz Family.

The all-student play, "Sing for Your Supper," attributed part of its success to four Junior actors, and the Thespian melo-drama, "Double Door," was spurred on by two Juniors. Eight Junior girls took part in the all-girl mystery, "The Other Ghost."

The newly organized speech choir contained twenty Juniors, and eighteen of our number joined the Madcap Players. The Girls' Choir, under Miss Marney's direction, was strengthened by the voices of twelve of our number.

Dorothy Jo Mitchell and Jeraldine Nichols won honors in the Band Clinic at Johnson City, and added laurels to the Junior achievements.

Our Junior year was greatly saddened by the tragic automobile accidents which caused the death of two of our members. Charles Gabbard was killed on February 9, 1946 and Irene Swaggerty on March 30, 1946.

"One year ago thy house of clay
Was left to ruin and decay;
While thou, thyself, ascended high
To brighter realms beyond the sky.
Ah, wondrous change, what glories thine!
What peace, what joys about thee shine!
No sickness and no sorrow given,
No pain nor tears for thee, in heaven."
—Copied.

The girl who was given the honor of being chosen as the Junior beauty queen was Ada Bowman. Lynn Rose Stansberry and Johnny Clapp were "Mr. and Miss Junior."

Our class parties included another boat excursion on Fort Loudon Lake. The Senior Class was most co-coperative in helping to make this a success. A party at the YMCA was enjoyed by the members of the class.

The climaxing event of our Junior year, and one for which we had worked so hard, was the Junior-Senior banquet, which was given at Whittle Springs Hotel on April 30, 1946. The Seniors were our guests of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Duff and members of the faculty were also invited. Our class colors were red and white. The rose was our class flower.

Our Senior year arrived at last. We selected Mrs. E. K. Mann, our Senior English teacher, as our class sponsor. Serving as class officers were: Donald Long as president, Henry Lethco as vice-president, Betty Jean Frost as secretary, and Barbara Lou Berry as treasurer. The Annual Staff was appointed soon after the year began with Bettina Bell as Editor and Betty Ann Gillespie as Associate Editor.

The band chose Betty Jean Frost to be their sponsor, and Doris Watson was majorette. An orchestra was organized, and six Seniors used their talents in the orchestra.

Gene Burgin was captain of the football team, and he was supported by ten other Seniors on the team. Burgin was also captain of the "All-City" team, and was on the "All-East Tennessee" team. Johnny Clapp was captain of the basketball team.

Fifteen Seniors were selected by the faculty to be ushers, and they served in this position at all the programs that were presented during the year. Seventeen of our group served on the "Yellowjacket" staff, and Betty Jean Straine was selected as Editor-in-Chief. Three Senior girls belonged to the "Kartoon Kids," a poster-drawing group and three Seniors were cheerleaders.

The dramatic productions given during our last year were highly successful, due to the acting of a large number of Seniors, and seventeen of our classmates belonged to the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society, six of whom were officers in the organization.

A number of Senior boys were affiliated with the Bachelor's Club.

Our class enjoyed very much the big Halloween party which was given in the school gymnasium; its success was due to the hard work of the efficient social committee. A very lovely Christmas turkey dinner was given on December 19 in the school cafeteria. A delicious menu made the occasion especially enjoyable, and a theatre party was enjoyed by the class after the dinner.

The winner of the Good Citizenship award in the contest sponsored by the DAR was Betty Ann Gillespie. She was chosen by the faculty and students because of her outstanding leadership during her four years in high school. Betty Jeane Straine and Johnny Clapp were given the high title of "Mr. and Miss Senior," and Lynn Rose Stansberry and Donald Long were selected by the student body to be "Mr. and Miss Young High School."

Our Senior year was a highly successful one; we can never forget those memories that it left with us. It has prepared us to meet life, and it set our faces toward the hope for a brighter and fuller future.

We owe most of our success as a class, during our four years in high school, to those who have helped guide us along the path. We particularly want to express our appreciation to Mr. Duff and to those teachers who have helped to make this one of our best years; we are indeed thankful for the opportunities which have been offered us here at Young.

BETTY JEAN CROSS, Historian.

PRAYER FOR GREATER STRIVING

O Lord,
I would be great—
But not in some spectacular way
For world acclaim.
Beyond my talents
Lie outstanding deeds, perhaps;
But, Lord, I would be great
In faithfulness to each small task
Thou givest me,
To do the best I can
With what I have
For Thy name's sake.
And if some day Thou sendest me
Some task that seems too big
For hands that only little deeds have done,
I know that what I cannot do,
Thou canst, through me, if I but will,
And in Thy strength
I'll do the thing that is too big for me.
Help me, O Lord, to stand approved
In faithfulness to every task.
Thus in Thy sight
I will be great.

"Honor to Whom Honor Is Due"

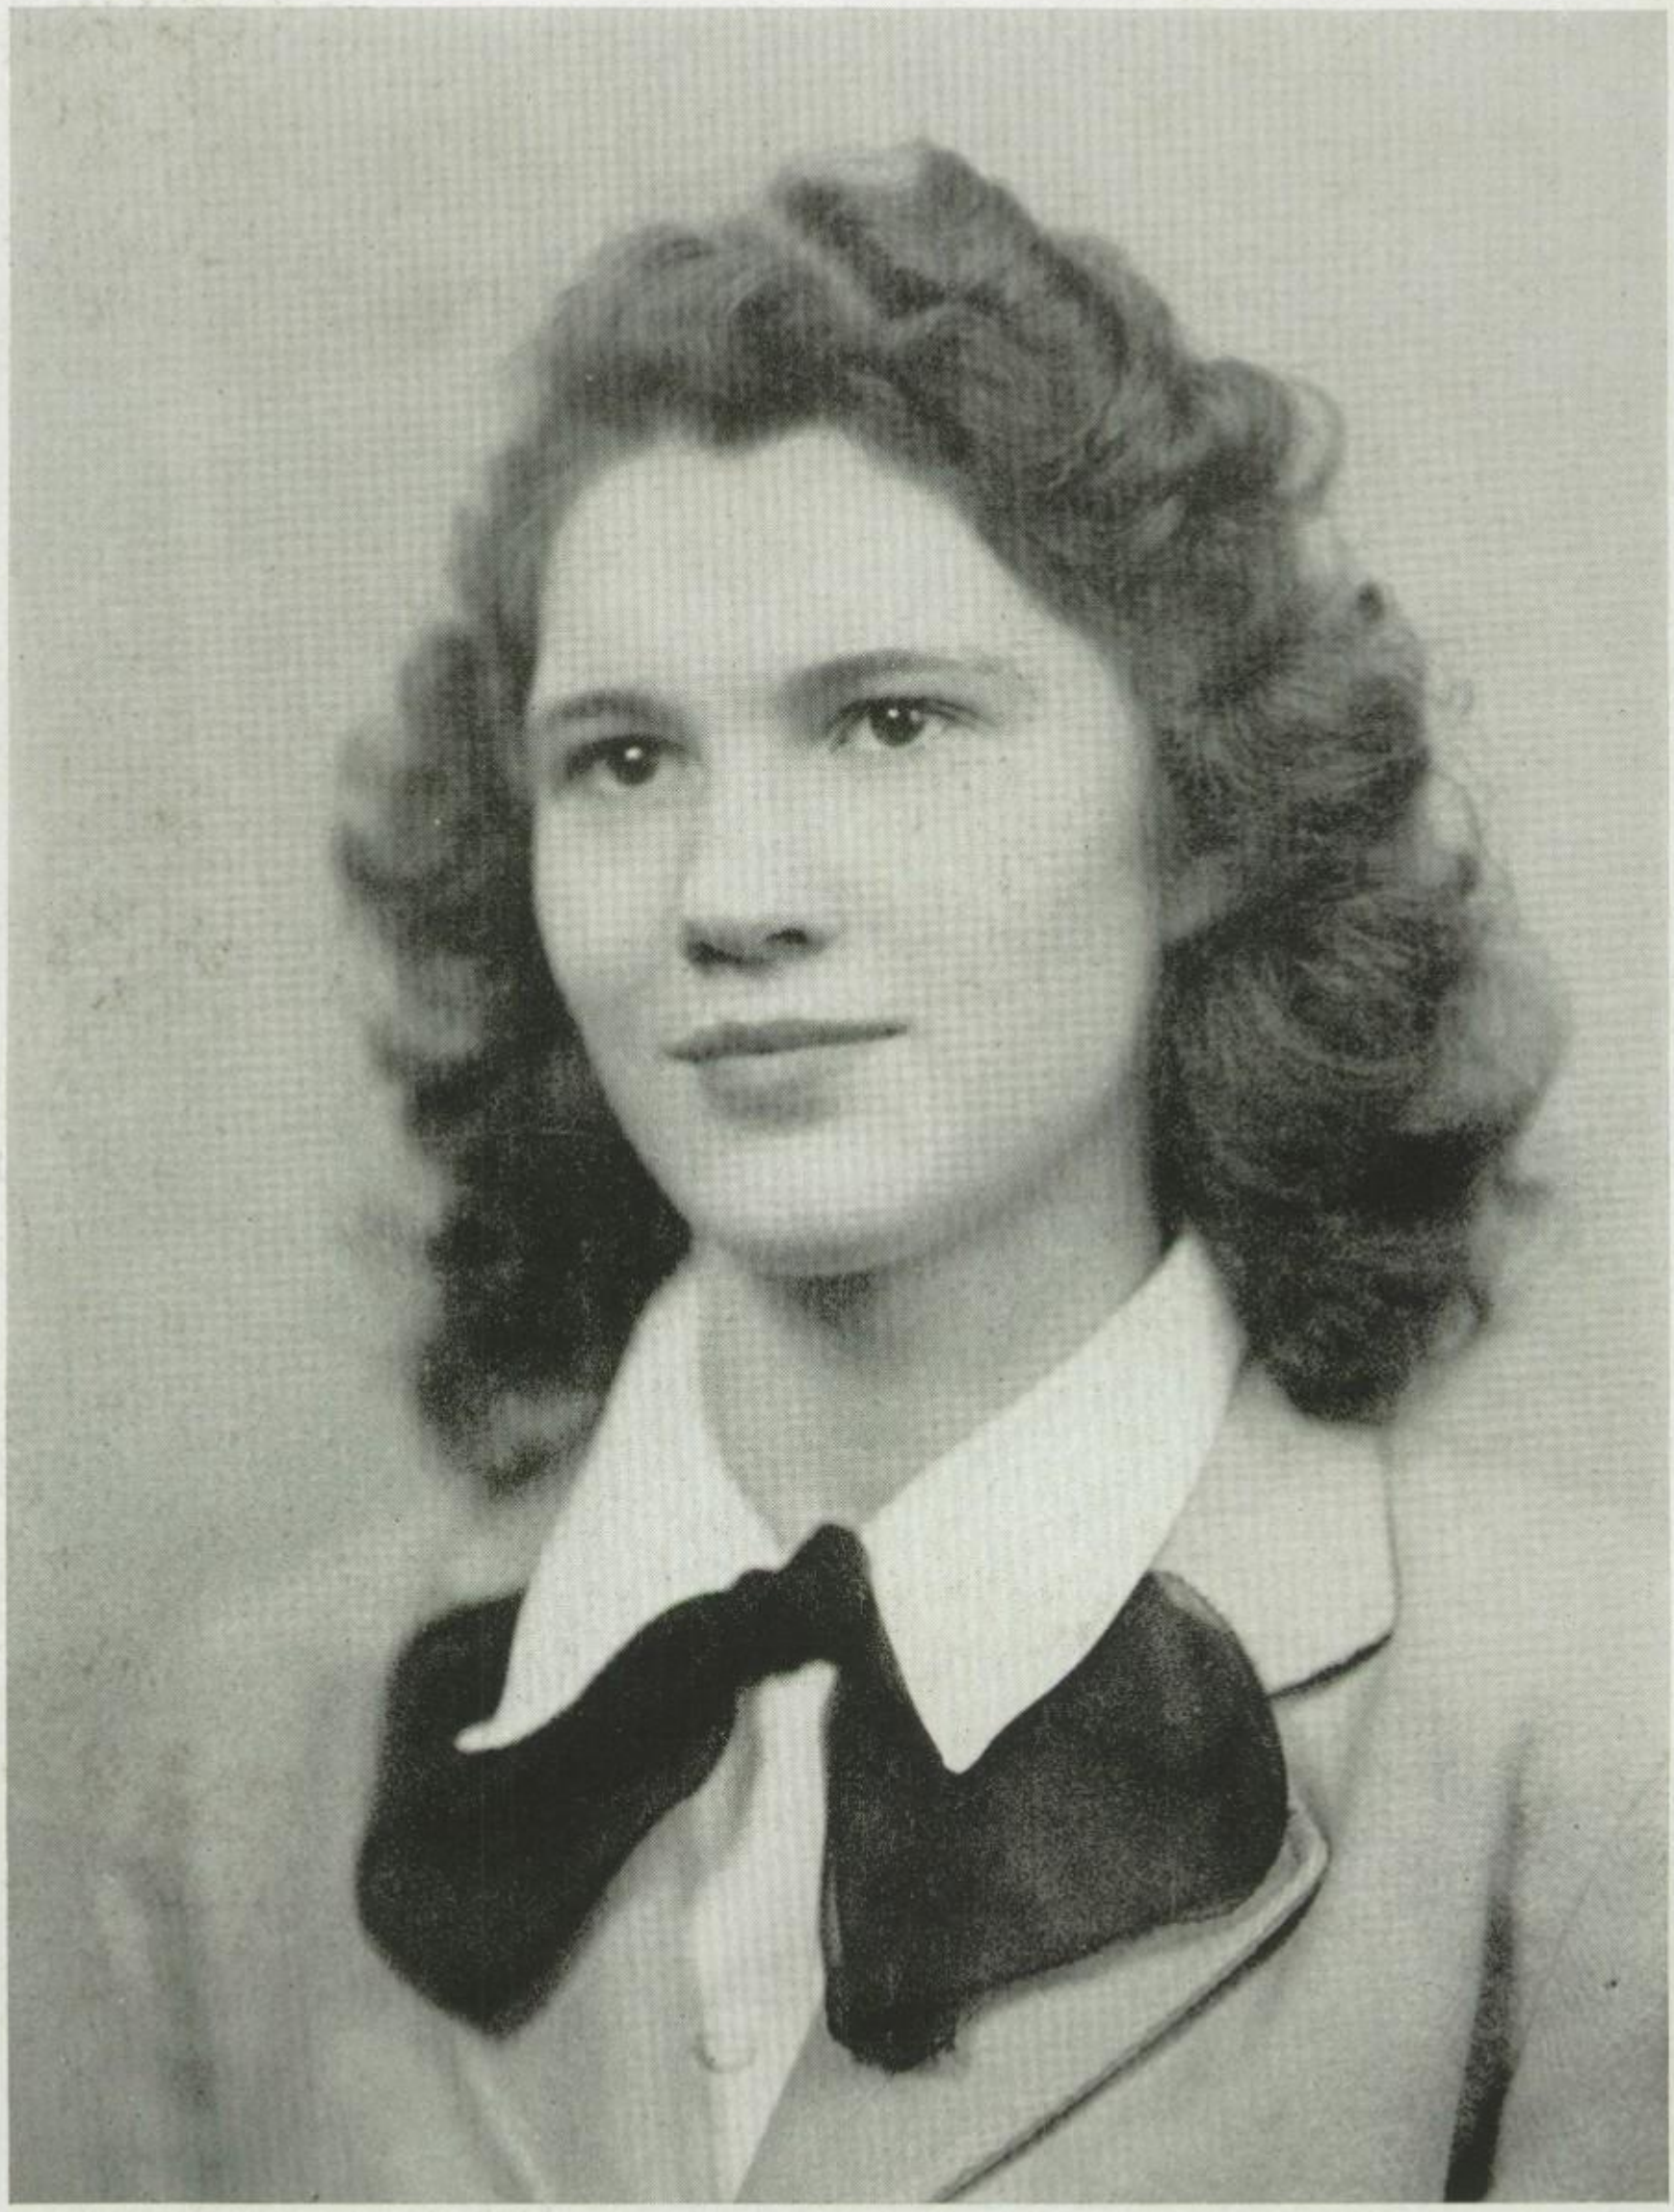
Good Citizen . .



The Daughters of the American Revolution sponsor an annual election of a senior girl from each high school to be known as a "Good Citizen". This girl is chosen for her dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. The students and faculty elected Betty Gillespie as Young High's "Good Citizen".

Mr. and Miss Young High

Every year the student body selects the boy and the girl from the senior class who have been the most outstanding in school activities. In view of their contributions to school life, two typical teen-agers, Donald Long and Lynn Rose Stansberry, were given the titles, "Mr. and Miss Young High".

Miss Teen Timer . . . MISS BARBARA BAUMANN

MISS BARBARA BAUMANN, sponsored by the American Legion, was chosen Miss Teen Timer of Knoxville in the contest held by the Teen Timer Colony of Miller's Department Store. She was later chosen Miss Teen Timer of East Tennessee. Her most coveted award was a trip to New York.

Dear Lord, in the battle that goes on through life,
I ask but a field that is fair,
A chance that is equal with all in the strife,
A courage to strive and to dare;
And if I should win, let it be by the code,
With my faith and my honor held high.
And if I should lose, let me stand by the road
And cheer as the winners go by.

★ ★ ★ ★

At the beginning of the 1946 football season, Coaches H. B. McCall, backfield instructor, and Lloyd Marchant, line instructor, were confronted with serious problems.

One of the main problems was to make replacements for many graduates.

Without the excellent training and valuable instruction given by the two coaches, the good record of this team would have been impossible.

To Coach McCall and Coach Marchant, we offer our many thanks and congratulations for a job well done.

The Young High "Yellowjackets" of 1946 had a very successful season. We won eight games while losing three and tying one.

Our greatest game, although a loss, was the 7-6 battle with Central High School. This game will long be remembered by many.

The "Yellowjackets" scored 249 points while allowing their opponents only 61.

Gene Burgin

Gene Burgin, one of the finest guards ever to play under the banner of the Orange and Black at Young High School, has won for himself honors during the 1946-47 football campaign that will long be remembered in the history of this school. Captain of the team, Burgin is the type of boy who played his heart out in every game.

On defense he made up the fifth man in the opposing team's backfield, while on offense he was like a bulldozer, moving any obstacles that might interfere with the ball carrier.

Honors fell thick and fast for Burgin at the close of the football season as he was first chosen to captain the All-City and later the All-East Tennessee squads. When All-State selections were made, Burgin's name again headed the list. He also received honorable mention on the All-Southern Team.

After such a successful football career in high school, we say, "Good luck, Gene, in your college football."

CORONATION OF THE QUEEN OF THE CARNIVAL

In the fall of 1946, the school held a carnival in which the entire student body and faculty participated. Each class had candidates for the Queen of the Carnival. This much-coveted title was finally won by Avis Kitts, a Junior. Jack Johnson was her manager. Knoxville merchants donated prizes for the event. Her crowning was the climax of the entire carnival.

THE GLORIOUS MINORITY

There are people who carry life's burdens,
Their own and some others beside;
There are people who stand in their places,
And who stand there whatever betide.
When the Kingdom is calling for workers,
Or some cause is seeking supporters,
These people will answer just then,
There are two kinds of people—you know them,
As you journey along life's track —
The people who take your strength from you,
And others who put it all back.
